

NIE Multimedia Program
News 12 Listening Quiz
Students and the Credit Crunch

1. Many of the students going to college today rely on
  - a. The parents for tuition.
  - b. Student loans.
  - c. Part-time jobs.

2. In these hard times many banks are
  - a. Offering help to local students with work programs.
  - b. Getting out of the private loan business.
  - c. Offering special low rates to college students.

3. Stafford Students loans are different than private loans because
  - a. There are lower rates.
  - b. You have longer to repay these loans.
  - c. They are government backed.

4. Banks will offer student loans but
  - a. The rates will be higher.
  - b. You must have an account with them.
  - c. Parents must guarantee the loans.

5. To make college more affordable you should
  - a. Go to a local college and commute from home.
  - b. Take one large loan for the entire 4 year program.
  - c. Involve your parents and grandparents.